New Building Concept Gets 'Green Light'

by CHRIS SPECHT

The Antioch Village Board approved the preliminary plan submitted by Al Little for his Plan Unit Development that he is proposing for 78 acres of land on Depot St. on Feb. 3.

Little said that the plan he submitted to board was just a preliminary plan and that actual building of the subdivision could be as much as two years away.

"What the board approved was the concept," said Little, "if built this development will be much different from what most people think of when they think of a subdivision."

Little plans to map out this subdivision with a variety of set backs from the roads and to arrange his houses in clusters rather than in the traditional row housing common among many area subdivisions. If built, Little said this would be the first development of its kind in Antioch although this style is popular in California, the South and South West.

Little explained that the clusters of houses would allow for more room for open areas, walking paths, lakes and ponds. Little also said that while the houses may be smaller in size the cost will be comparable to what people are now paying to rent apartments.

Little plans to put approximately two hundred homes on the development.

The board will not approve construction until after engineers have mapped out more specific plans, yet the fact that the board has approved the idea could have a significant impact on the way subdivisions are planned in Antioch in the future.

Other business handled by the board included the authorization for a $2500 outlay in engineering expenses for a cross walk to be installed at the corner of Rts. 173 and 83. Concern for students walking to Antioch Community High School was cited as the reason a new cross walk is needed.

Gas Leak Kills Man

A faulty furnace may be the cause of the death of an Antioch man who was found dead in his home on Jan. 29.

Emil J. Wagnes Jr., 40, of 40000 block Shady Lane, was found dead in his home by Lake County Sheriff's Deputies at about 3:30 p.m. Laboratory tests later showed that Wagnes had succumbed to carbon monoxide poisoning. The gas company later found a leak in Wagnes' furnace.

Exchange Students Welcomed

Susie Biles (left), 17, Edson Melo, 17, and Kimberly Tekampe, 17, are all part of Antioch Community High School's Rotary Exchange Program. The program helps high school students from all over the world visit other countries and experience different cultures. Susie Biles is from Skipton, England and has been in Antioch for the past 6 months. Edson Melo is from Teresina-Piaui, Brazil and has been here since Jan. 13. Antioch native Kimberly Tekampe spent most of 1985 living with a family in Bogata Columbia. The students all say that they are the better for their experience and are grateful to the Antioch Rotary Club for providing it.

Rotary Offers Change Of Scene

by CHRIS SPECHT

In the past the Antioch Rotary Club has made a valuable contribution to the lives of some Antioch Community High School Students by giving them the opportunity to live and study in other countries and to experience different cultures. The Rotary Club has also been responsible for giving students from other countries the opportunity to experience life in America.

This year is no exception. Two of the students the club has brought over, Edson Melo, 17, from Brazil, and Susie Biles, 17, from England. The Rotary also sent Kimberly Tekampe, a 17 year old ACHS student to live for a year with a family in Bogata, Columbia.

Kimberly stayed with the family of Motero Dominguez from March 11, 1985 to Jan. 22. As part of her course of study in Columbia, Kimberly had to teach poorer children in the rural region of Los Llanos. Working with poorer students was a graduation requirement at the school Kimberly attended.

"It was really an experience seeing how other people live," said Kimberly. Kimberly said that Los Llanos was about 100 years behind modern times in terms of technology. The only forms of transportation for most people was walking and riding horses. The closest town was a two hour bus ride away. For the people of Los Llanos this was their only link to the outside world.

Kimberly, however, was only in Los Llanos for part of her time in Columbia. She spent most of the time in the area of Bogata. Kimberly said Bogata was a modern city but that it did have its seedy side. According to Kimberly, there is no middle class in Columbia only the rich and the very poor. She said that in some parts of Bogata abandoned children digging in garbage and begging for money were not an uncommon sight.

Despite these problems, Kimberly was positive in her overall view of Columbia and felt the news media tended to over emphasize such problems as the attempted take over of the government and the volcano eruption.

"People sometimes think I'm crazy when I say that. I would like to go back," said Kimberly. "It upsets me when people only think of the negative things about the country."

Kimberly said that she missed the simplicity of life in Columbia and the friendly people that lived there. While she was there, Kimberly said that she missed her parents and the school activities at ACHS, such as homecoming and football games, that were not available at the all girl school she attended in Columbia.

Susie Biles is originally from Skipton in the county of North Yorkshire, in England, but for the past six months her home has been in Antioch where she is staying with Stan and Ann Livermore.

Susie said that education was the biggest difference between England and America. She said that girls school she attended in England required uniforms and eight classes a day, quite a difference from ACHS. She also said that her school in England was more like a small campus with classes in different buildings. Having had experience in both educational systems, Susie picked England as having the more difficult curriculum.

Susie said that American accents were difficult to understand at first, but that she now has adjusted to the point where she can understand what most people are saying. She credits ACHS teachers with helping her to

House Guttled

This is an exterior view of the house that Robert Gonigam has been indicted for burning on Jan. 17. Gonigam lived on the first floor of the building which was completely destroyed by the blaze. The fire was reported by an upstairs resident of the building who noticed that her apartment was filling with smoke. Gonigam has been indicted on one count each of Criminal Damage to Property, Arson, and Aggravated Arson. His trial will begin on March 6.

Gonigam Indicted

Based on testimony given by members of the Antioch Police and Fire Departments the Lake County Grand Jury indicted Robert L. Gonigam, 19, of Antioch on one count each of Criminal Damage to Property, Arson, and Aggravated Arson.

The charges of Arson and Aggravated Arson are felonies and the charge of Aggravated Arson, which is made when the building that is burned is occupied, carries a mandatory prison sentence upon conviction.

The charges stemmed from a Jan. 17 incident which led to the arrest of Gonigam for setting fire to his own apartment on 342 Depot St. in Antioch. The fire was reported by a resident on the second floor of the same building who noticed that her apartment was filling with smoke for no apparent reason. The Antioch Fire Department arrived to find Gonigam's apartment on the first floor, in flames.

Antioch police later found Gonigam and brought him in for questioning. Gonigam was arrested for arson after it was determined that a flammable liquid was used to start the blaze.

Gonigam will appear before Circuit Court Judge Benard Drew for pre-sentencing on Feb. 26, and his trial will begin on March 6.

Little Leagues Sign-Up

It has been brought to my attention that information I had was incorrect. The Purfeerst's in West Germany with the new baby boy is Don and Beth. I had been told Amy. Sorry!!

For all of you planning to sign your children up for Little League, it is at the Scout House Feb. 21-22, and Feb. 28 and March 1. It is a little hard to think of Little League with the snow threatening us all of the time but now is the time to prepare. I understand Little League has been meeting and getting everything in order with President Bob Howes leading the way.

Did everyone have a good time at the Chamber of Commerce Dinner? It certainly was a nice event and the great part was the Superbowl Shuffle! You guys outdid yourselves on that one or maybe I should say Dennis Johnson did as he put the idea together. For anyone that didn't see it you must ask Mike Ganter to play the sax for you sometime! Each one did their part very well. It was just like watching the video.

I am sure everyone had a good day on Superbowl Sunday. I have heard of a number of parties about town and a few Packer Backers that lost a few bets that day. Ha Ha Ha. It serves you right! Gooooo Bears!!!!

I hope you guys are looking about town in the stores for ideas to give your gal for Valentine's Day! Jewelry is always a good idea you can't go wrong and don't forget the flowers and chocolates! Of course dinner out on that Friday evening would be a perfect topper! And a new outfit to wear out to dinner would really make her happy! Just tryin' to help out guys. Annie Mae doesn't want to see you guys in trouble the fifteenth! Just a Reminder!

BEARS---We are real proud of you!!!

Seniors Hear Candidate

The variety of delicious pot luck dishes were enjoyed by the Pioneer Senior Citizens in the Hasting's Memorial Temple, Richmond. There were 46 present at this noon event.

Following the meal, the business meeting was conducted. After the usual opening procedure, a report was given about those who are ill. Get well wishes were extended to Ruth Bjerning, Cecilia Mann, Ruth Fox, Edith Buchert and Roy Pearcy. Because Rose Jankowiak was absent, Ruth Schmitz offered to send get well cards.

Wilbert Hecht, a candidate for Sheriff of McHenry County, distributed campaign literature and bumper stickers. He also gave a speech and became a member of the club.

The following were appointed for the nominating committee; Walter Pretzman, Dorothy Harris, Lola Slavin and Tille Stilling. They are to report at the March 4 meeting and election will be held March 18. The new officers will be installed April 1.

Because the March 18, Richmond Township Election will be held in Hasting's Memorial Temple, it was voted to hold that Pioneer Club meeting in the basement of St. Joseph Church in Richmond.

The Feb. 4 meeting will be a regular meeting with sandwiches and cakes. Feb. 18 will be a pot luck luncheon with those whose names start with M through Z to bring food.

Dorothy Ackland was secretary pro-tem due to illness of Ruth Bjerning.

President Edith Harrison reminded the members that $3 dues should be paid by April 1.

make this adjustment.

One of the big differences Susie noticed between England and the United States was the way the houses were spaced. She said that here the houses seemed to be spread further apart and did not seem to be in any order whereas in England the houses were usually close together and in straight rows.

Susie said that she has enjoyed her stay in America but occasionally misses her family and friends from home.

Edson Melo, from Teresina-Piaui, Brazil, is the Rotary Club's newest addition to the exchange student program. Edson arrived in Antioch on Jan. 13, and he is staying with Tom and Dori Hubbard. Some of his experiences so far have included trying to master the English language and buying his first pair of gloves.

Edson has already visited the cities of Kenosha and Chicago, where he took a driving tour of the windy city. Edson said that he was impressed with the amount of traffic in Chicago. Edson also said that while Chicago was a nice place to visit, he would not want to live there.

According to Edson, one of the biggest differences between Brazil was the education in the two countries. Edson said that in Brazil school lasted from 7-11 a.m. and there were no extra curricular activities. Edson also said that parents in Brazil did not take an active interest in school activities the way parents did in America. Unlike his English counterpart, Edson picked the United States as having a harder school curriculum than Brazil.

Another difference Edson has already noticed is the greater class mobility that exists in the United States. According to Edson people who are poor in Brazil usually stay poor as do the people who are rich.

Another difference that Edson has noticed is the greater accessibility to consumer goods that exists in America.

"In Brazil it takes a lot of money to buy a car," explained Edson, "but here it seems like it is no big thing to own a car."

Although the three exchange students at ACHS come from widely varied backgrounds, the one thing they share is gratitude to the Rotary Club for making their experiences in other countries possible.

"Before I came to America, I always considered myself a resident of Skipton who would always be a resident of Skipton, but thanks to the Rotary Club, I now know what it is like to live in another country."

Wayne Parthun, an employee at Allendale School and the coordinator of the exchange program at ACHS, said that the program could not exist without the support of the school and the community.

"You can have the best program in the world," explained Parthun, "but if the school doesn't support the program or the community does not support the fundraisers, then it just won't work. We have been very fortunate here in Antioch."

Both the students and Rotarians hope that the good fortune continues for years to come.

Athlete Of The Week

Denise Maple has been selected as the 'Athlete of the Week' for her 16 points and 7 rebounds against Stevenson's girl's basketball team on Jan. 25. She also held their highest scorer to one half of her normal scoring average. Ed Roach, representing the State Bank of Antioch is shown presenting a $50 check in Denise's name to the High School Parent-Teacher Scholarship fund. Harold Abramson, Girls Basketball Head Coach is also pictured.

1 Out Of 2 Toddlers In Pre-School Care

by GLORIA DAVIS

Are the children of the late 1970s and 1980s, and maybe of future years, literally being raised by part-time parents? If so who is raising our children? How many are raising themselves for all intents and purposes?

Webster's Dictionary defines a parent as "one that begets or brings forth an offspring." Obviously every child then has two parents in the dictionary's defined sense.

Although the same dictionary starts its definition of "mother" with "one who gives birth," it does give "one who cares for or protects," as another part of the definition.

Besides receiving the credit for procreation, Webster says that a father is "one who accepts responsibility for or cares for."

One of Adolf Hitler's most famous quotes is "Give me a child until he is five and he is mine forever."

Another person, well-known for different reasons, seems to have agreed with Hitler. St. Francis said, "Give me a child until he is seven and then anyone can have him."

Today 48 percent of American kids go into nursery and pre-schools before they reach the age of five.

The reasons for this range from the need for two paychecks, putting Mom in the workforce; the one out of three divorce rate, making a bread-winning mother a necessity; the need of many women for a career outside of the home, etc.

Overall, 60 percent of the children in the United States spend the bulk of five days per week in the care of others during their school years, and if parents either work or have other plans over the weekend, a babysitter takes over then or older children take care of themselves.

Most kids get picked-up from daycare centers at 6 p.m., leaving little time for a work-tired parent to offer much "parenting" input in that short period before bedtime.

So here we have the question, "Are many of today's children getting their basic character formation from a mixture of daycare center instructors, babysitters, teachers and tv? If so, what are the merits and detriments?"

Are today's children understandably smarter because of the hours they spend with people who are experts in child care and instruction compared to the love-inspired hit and miss tactics most mothers are able to employ?

How important is the loss of the motherly-love inspired nurturing that used to accompany the lessons learned "at Mother's knee?"

Besides classroom discipline, how effective is the haphazard moral training supplied by many of today's "part-time parents?"

Can mom and dad do a good job of overseeing character building and the instilling of proper morals in their children when they are working from separate households because 30 percent of today's kids being raised in one-parent households?

With the new moral codes, how are children affected by a continual change in one parent image when mom remarries one or more times? What happens when mom's or dad's "live-in" takes partial charge of a kid's life?

According to statistics from the University of Illinois, of the 60 percent of kids whose mothers are in the work force, many become "Latchkey Kids" before they reach the age of 10.

These are the children that are left to care for themselves after school until one or more parents get home.

This is part of a modern syndrome in which even in some homes still inhabited and run

In Care Of Others

by a child's two real parents, these parents find it easier and less interruptive to let their children make "adult" decisions before they are ready to?

Actually, all these questions add up to the one big one, "Are most of today's parents putting the needs of their children second to their own wants and needs, treating them like possessions to be taken out and paid attention to at their own convenience?"

Or has the electronic age spawned a whole new look in parenting that, though bearing little resemblance to those on "Little House On The Prairie", "Leave It To Beaver," or "Father Knows Best," actually is achieving equal or better results, more befitting the proper production of the kind of adult who should be running the world during the next few decades?

Is the "family" no more or has it just taken on a new look?

This series intends to draw no conclusions, nor will it presume to make definite statements as to cause and effect. It merely wishes to point out certain facts, certain trends, and suggest that if some components are repeatedly present in similar situations, they might merit the same attention that smoke draws from a fire department.

Information from the University of Illinois Extension Services out of Grayslake points out that babies form a special attachment to that special person who responds to them when they are wet, hungry or in pain.

Traditionally that person was mom or dad, today in most cases, it is one of many babysitters or daycare instructors.

What happens to that need for security when it's handling is constantly changed, leaving no "special" person for that sense of security to center on?

problems are from one-parent homes. "I find that sometimes, when a child has spent a week-end with the parent they don't live with, they return to school unhappy," Lillstrom said.

Society's Problem: Part-Time Parents

Shirley Lillstrom, who has had 21 years of experience in the child-care field, is the administrator of The Peppermint Stick Day Care Centers and Pre-Schools in Grayslake and Antioch.

At Peppermint Stick a child could conceivably be supervised by as many as three instructors during one daytime stay, one if the child comes before 8 a.m., one for the morning hours and another for the afternoon period.

Lillstrom says, "We try to keep as close to the parent figure as possible by having the same people in those three spots, giving the child a form of routine that imparts a sense of security."

She added that the children and staff become so well acquainted with each other, that it does become a family of sorts.

She agreed that a turnover in staff and the leaving of one of those teachers could affect a child almost like the loss of a parent.

"It's hard, but they seem to work it out," said Lillstrom, adding that Peppermint "has been lucky" because of little turnover, some of the teachers having a six to eight year tenure.

She did say that many times, she has noticed that children that have behavioral

In a previous interview, Lillstrom said that many pre-school children benefit from the interaction, and the things they learn from the other children they spend much time with at the daycare center.

These children have less trouble getting along with other children when they enter grade school.

Lillstrom also said that a good pre-school curriculum is geared to help children learn more quickly than they can from a mother who has not been specially trained like an accredited pre-school instructor.

She adds that she finds that most parents who must put their child in a daycare center or a pre-school care enough to do proper research on the center they choose, a practice she strongly advocates.

She disparages a parent leaving a child for the entire 12 hours that most centers are open, saying that parents should spend as much time as possible with their children.

She then points out that the amount of time is not necessarily paramount, quality time is.

We will delve into what child specialists, psychologists and family counselors call "quality time" in the next part of this series when we talk about "Latchkey Children."

Bring Your Questions

"In person" information on income tax problems will be yours at an income tax seminar to be presented by the Internal Revenue Service in conjunction with Lakeland Newspapers and College of Lake County.

The program is scheduled for 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 26, at the Grayslake campus of CLC.

Featured speaker will be Agent Sallie Goding, veteran of the IRS service.

Her program will be of interest to both individual taxpayers and businesses.

DEAR CITIZENS:

We the Concerned Citizens of Lake County, in our quest for good government, take this opportunity to let you the taxpayers and voters of Lake County know that good government is the duty and responsibility of each and every one of us. In this we are failing.

Good government is government by the people, for the people, not by a handful of people from each township. Approximately 20-30 people in number that meet at some local saloon to decide who will hold public office and what kind of deal to cut with other township organizations for their support.

These same people do not encourage voter turnout or voter registration. Who needs the support of a voter that would choose to stay home on election day, that feels you can't fight city hall or just doesn't care enough to get involved. Why earn the support of a new Voter? It would be easier not to register new voters. It would be better to leave well enough alone. It simply becomes a matter of telling supporters what number to punch at the polls.

In Lake County, approximately 40% of the people eligible to vote are not registered to vote. Out of the 60% that are, about 34% turn out to vote in the primary elections. Of this 34%, it takes about 18% to win. We are now back to square #1. The same handful of people and their supporters determine who will hold public office.

Cook County has registered well over 230,000 new voters, and has a voter turnout of close to 90%. It would appear that the people of Cook County will soon control our state government and the tax dollar that we pay into it. Will we get our fair share back, or a few crumbs off the table?

The last state wide election was determined by less than 5000 voters. What's to happen this coming November at the general elections?

We call upon all local, as well as county wide political organizations, to put aside their own political ambitions to work for and encourage voter participation and registration for the good of the people of Lake County and ask all civic and fraternal organizations to participate in this endeavor. We hope that the news media throughout the county will support our efforts. To register to vote, stop by your village or township hall. If you are disabled or not able to leave your home, let them know this and they will send a registrar to your home. If not, contact the Lake County Clerks Office at 689-6628 and they will see to your registration.

We the Concerned Citizens of Lake County in the interest of good government ask your support.

Concerned Citizens of Lake County

Our statement of organization is on file with the Lake County Clerk's Office.

Jim Arns Spearheads Chain's Sweet Adelines

In March of 1984, Jim Arns was welcomed to the Chain O'Lakes Chapter, Sweet Adelines, Inc. "The chorus is very happy to have him as the director. He has given the gals a great deal of motivation and has brought out the hidden talent in them. "The 1985 third place medals are proof of that," said publicity chairman, Julie Hazel.

Barbershop singing is not new to Arns. His mother has sung for many years with the Sweet Adelines, and is a member of the Choralaires barbershop chorus, who at present, are the regional champions and will be competing in the international competition this fall in Philadelphia. He, himself sings with the New Traditions, (second place silver medalist) a mens' barbershop chorus, and is also the assistant director. He has a background of classical music, and is a professional musician.

Arns has been in music since he was four, and has devoted much of his youth to it. He holds a masters degree in music from Northwestern University, is an associate professor at St. Mary's College in Joliet, and is on the music staff at Downers Grove South High School. Arns attributes are numerous; his talents seem to have no bounds. He arranges music and also coaches several area barbershop groups.

In his "spare time," he took flying lessons, and loves to fly whenever possible. He's also a candidate for precinct committeeman.

Arns would like to see barbershop singing more recognized as a legitimate art form. Although Sweet Adelines, Inc. has been honored by the Music Educator National Conference, recognition has been slow in spite of the musical excellence that barbershoppers bring to their singing.

The Chain O'Lakes Chorus would like to teach four-part harmony, barbershop style, to more women who like to sing. Rehearsals are held at Mundelein High School, 1350 Hawley St., on Thursday nights, 7:30 p.m. in the choral room. Come and meet Arns. Women 16 and over are most welcome. For more information, call: Julie (312) 356-7526, Ruth (312) 362-0886 or Olga (312) 336-9236.

In Germany

Lisa Field of Lake Villa, is spending the spring semester studying in Germany and Austria under the international studies program administered there by Central College. The program begins with intensive language sessions at a Goethe Institute in West Germany.

Prodigy To Appear With Symphony

On Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 15 and 16, Lake Forest Symphony audiences will be among the first in the United States to hear an extraordinary Canadian prodigy.

At 13, Corey Cerovsek is one of the most outstanding young talents on the concert scene. He made his orchestral debut in 1981 with the Calgary Philharmonic in Canada. Since his debut, he has given many recitals across Canada, Australia and the United States. He has appeared with major Canadian orchestras, including a special Toronto Symphony gala for Queen Elizabeth II. Last fall, Cerovsek appeared with the Seattle Symphony after winning the Seattle Young Artist Competition. His performances with the Lake Forest Symphony are among the first with an American orchestra.

Cerovsek is the youngest student ever to be admitted to Indiana University's School of Music. He entered at age 12 with junior standing in music and mathematics; he just completed doctoral-level courses in both subjects. He studies violin and chamber music with Indiana University's renowned Josef Gingold. Professor Gingold was himself a prodigy early in the century and has enjoyed a distinguished career as both performer and teacher.

Professor Gingold will join Cerovsek with the Lake Forest Symphony in performances of the Bach Double Concerto for two violins. Cerovsek is the featured soloist in Wieniawski's second violin concerto. The concert, under the direction of Music Director Victor Aitay, opens with the suite from Rimsky-Korsakov's opera "Mlada" and concludes with Sir Edward Elgar's "Enigma Variations."

Lake Forest Symphony performs Saturday, Feb. 15 at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, Feb. 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Drake Theatre on the campus of Lake Forest's Barat College.

Ticket prices range from $12 to $17 and special group, student and senior citizen discounts are available. Tickets are available at Helanders, Don's Finest Foods or through the symphony office by calling (312) 295-2135.

PM&L To Fete Anniversary

Although Antioch doesn't have a blue book, gala balls are not excluded from the community calendar. This 25th Anniversary, Antioch's P.M.&L. Theatre wishes to thank the community for its generous support and patronage of P.M.&L. productions by throwing the event of the season.

On March 1, everyone is invited to don their dancing shoes and finery as the Gene Marlowe Orchestra entertains with its melodies. The cocktail hour and an open bar all evening will help quench any thirst worked up from dancing, followed by a sumptuous supper.

Also, a one act play directed by Tom Hausmann will be presented for everyone's enjoyment. Door prizes contributed from P.M.&L. members will round out the festivities. The expense to guests will be $20 per person, tired feet and a night to remember.

Everyone is invited but must respond to P.M.&L.'s invitation by Feb. 15. Send the information about the number of people attending and payment to P.M.&L., Inc., P.O. Box 23, Antioch, IL 60002.

The ball will be held at the VFW Hall, 75 E. North Ave. Festivities will start at 6:30 p.m.

Schwan, Crop Steal Andres' New Show

by Jean Rybicki

Andre's Dinner Theater, at Andre's Steak House in Richmond opened the new dinner-theater season with a Fantasia Production rendition of Neil Simon's comedy about the trials and tribulations of a young newlywed New York couple.

Multi-talented Ron Ferraro is the director of the play and also plays the telephone man, deserving credit for turning out an enjoyable production greatly enhanced by his brief but amusing appearance.

Stealing the show are Carol Schwan as the mother of the new bride, Ethel Banks, and Donald Crop as the crazy Russian neighbor. Both are perfectly cast and seem to have a great deal of fun with their roles.

The young couple, played by Jill Ackerman and Dan Proctor, start out the play with a bit of overacting but slip into the proper groove before too long and then turn in very "natural" performances.

So for the most part it is a delightful show, played by a delightful cast and, not to break a trend, the dinner served before the play is a delight to the palate.

P.M. & L. Starts Singing

P.M. & L. Theatre's production of the Tony Award winning musical "They're Playing Our Song" is set to open, Feb. 7 and 8, with an 8:30 p.m. curtain.

The production is under the direction of Mark Badtke. The show was written by Neil Simon, Marvin Hamlisch, and Carol Bayer Sager. Put America's premiere funny man (Neil Simon) and the Tony Award-winning composer of "A Chorus Line" (Marvin Hamlisch) together and you get this hit that is full of laughs and delightful music.

To catch this bright and witty evening of fun, make reservations at (312) 395-3055. Play dates are: Feb. 7, 8, 14, 15, 21 and 22 at 8:30 p.m. and Feb. 16 at 2:30 p.m.

The theatre is located at 877 Main St. in Antioch.

Joins Oak Ridge Boys At Childrens Benefit

Round Lake's syndicated journalist and broadcaster, Ruth Nathan Anderson, met with the Oak Ridge Boys at the Chicago Hilton and Towers to participate in a world conference on the control of child mistreatment and neglect.

The recent three-day conclave, attended by over 3,000 delegates, was co-sponsored by the U. S. National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect and the Chicago-based National Committee on the Prevention of Child Abuse.

Based on her talks with members of the celebrated singing quartet, Duane Allen, Joe Bonsall, William Lee Golden and Richard Sterban, Anderson told the Round Lake News: "I learned that the concerns of battered and ill-used children have been a priority with the Oak Ridge Boys since they began their annual 'Stars-for-Children' concerts in Dallas, Texas in 1979. This was years before the need for child advocacy became as popular as it is today.

"The singers have worked intensively to lead the international campaign to end child mistreatment by making enlightening speeches, raising lots of money for public education and singing songs in praise of youngsters, such as the recorded, 'Thank God For Kids.'"

Anderson, an award-winning medical writer, hosts, writes and co-produces the weekly "Celebrity Health News" show on CableNet/TCI's Channel 21. She says she was deeply impressed with the heart and zeal with which the entertainers continue to give freely of their time and talents to help eliminate the horrors of child abuse.

"These special fellas," she says, "have 10 children between them. They feel that fatherhood has given them sensitive insights about what dependent children need in order to flourish into healthy, productive adults."

Anderson says that Duane Allen, speaking for the group, pointed out that "a lot of abused children are retarded, a fact that hasn't been brought to sufficient public awareness. Through our work with the Assn. of Retarded Citizens, we learned that parents of retarded kids will too often resort to physical and mental brutality out of frustration and ignorance. With education and understanding, such abuse can be prevented."

Anderson, who has served about nine years as an elected trustee of the Round Lake Area Library Board, concluded her special interview with this paper by noting, "Over one million kids were abused and neglected last year. Society has got to reverse this dreadful picture."

Marriott's New 'Camelot' Features 'Real' People

by GLORIA DAVIS

Every once in awhile, the Marriott Lincolnshire Theater puts this reviewer into a bind by doing a time-worn "classic" production, but doing it in Marriott's inimitable grand style.

I, like many theater goers have seen about a zillion versions of "Camelot," from Richard Burton's down to those of area theaters. I've always loved the music but found the book rather dull and lack luster.

Somehow, King Arthur and his knights get slighted by the boundaries of a stage. A knight strolling onto stage left in full armor is as anti-climatic as trying to pass off the shutting off of a stage fountain as the parting of the Red Sea.

This of course is not the fault of artistic director Dyanne Earley and set designer Jack Doepp who really do as good a job as I've seen in trying to turn the the small theater in the round into the jousting fields of Camelot.

Though I was uncomfortable with that premise, I found that the cast partially made up for the panoramic lack. The three leads, George Lee Andrews, Marti Morris and Robert Frisch come to Lincolnshire with impressive credits that start on Broadway.

Andrews' up-to-date version of King Arthur was a pleasing one. I can't say I found him as regal as Burton or others that have played the part, but he did seem more human than kingly and I did empathize with his plight more.

Earley's elimination of the fairy tale aspect makes the people on stage much more real and the whole legendary classic more enjoyable.

Marti Morris is a lovely Guenevere, cool and queenly, but I found Robert Frisch's Lancelot, despite his fine rendition of "If Ever I Would Leave You," almost as stiff as his armored suit.

Andrews and Morris have a lilting and easy way with the title song and "What Do The Simple Folks Do," turning them into the kind that one might leave the theater humming.

Plaudits to Andrews for his strong emoting in "How To Handle A Woman."

As soon as I heard that Marriott slated "Camelot" to open the new season, I was sure that Larry McCauley would play Merlin with the same aplomb as he has handled like roles for Lincolnshire.

As usual Marriott's dance and vocal chorus is outstanding and Kevin Stites' musicians do a top-notch job with Lerner and Loewe's classic music.

If your love for the Lerner-Loewe musical touch has withstood the hackney of time and "Camelot's" still one of your favorites, Marriott is featuring a production ranks way up there.

The main derby headquarters, also the spot where all the game activity will take place, will be on Channel Lake at Wasz's Resort.

There have been reports of good blue gill and crappie fishing on Channel Lake.

Two of the satellite headquarters will be on Petite Lake, at Kempf's Resort and at Pitakee Bay at Pink Harrison's Resort.

Petite Lake fishing reports has reported slow fishing but the catch of catfish and yellow stripers is expected to increase by the time of the derby.

Those who intend to go to Pistakee Bay for the derby are asked to park at the Ball Knob in Harmony.

Over $30,000 in prizes will be given away and there are

Control Tower Being Sought

Congressman John Porter (R-10th) will work with the Waukegan Port District and state and local officials to secure an air traffic control tower for Waukegan Regional Airport, Lake County's only all-weather airport.

"Since the airport's new Instrument Landing System (ILS) will be operational on Feb. 13, Porter said, "the next step in its development is a control tower. With increased air traffic at the airport, safety considerations require that a tower be installed as soon as possible."

"The further development of Waukegan Regional Airport will be a boon to all of Lake County," Porter commented.

State Bank Celebrates Super Sunday

While State Bank of Antioch President Randy Miles was in New Orleans to watch the Bears mangle the Patriots, he invited all of the bank's employees to dress for "Super Saturday". Miles gave out free commemorative buttons for his employees to wear in order show thier support for the world's greatest football team. From left to right are Jean Rockow, Operations Officer; Carolyn Blanchette Trust Officer; and William E. Brook, Vice-Chairman of the Board. Jean is sporting her hand-knit headband that all of the girls in the New Accounts Department wore on Saturday. Carolyn, is dressed in her own "Refrigerettes" costume which we made from her own bathrobe. Bill is dressed in Jim McMillen's wool jersey, which is now over 40 years old.

The Past Revisited

Robert Jeske, of the Lakes Region Historical Society, presented his 'Old Barns' program to the Antioch Women's Club at the State Bank of Antioch on Feb. 3. Jeske's program included illustrations, tools, materials, and parts of barns, in an examination of Antioch's historical past. Last week the News-Reporter referred to Jeske as 'Robert Teske'. The New-Reporter regrets the error.

Hogan Resigns

by ARDEEN HARRIS
(312) 395-2761

At the last Grass Lake School Board meeting, it was with great regret that the school board accepted Richard Hogan's resignation. His resignation was accepted in order for him to take advantage of an opportunity for professional advancement. Mr. Hogan accepted the position as superintendent of the Lisle Community Unit District 202 in DuPage County. Lisle has five buildings with an enrollment of nearly 2,000 students and also includes a high school. The Lotus School Board also accepted Mr. Hogan's resingation at their last board meeting. There is a special farewell reception planned for Mr. Hogan on Feb. 16 sponsored by the Grass Lake PTO. The PTO will have their open house from 1 until 3 p.m. in the school gym. Students and parents of students (past and present) will have the opportunity to make their farewells and to wish him well in his new position.

Mr. Hogan leaves Grass Lake School after spending seven and a half years as the dedicated Superintendent of District 36. Behind him, he leaves an indelible mark in the hearts and minds of the Grass Lake community and on the facilities of Grass Lake School. We all wish him good luck with this fantastic job opportunity. Other items which were discussed at the Grass Lake Board meeting were: a discussion with the School Architect on Life-Safety; discussed state school reorganization; reviewed the district's financial future; appointed Mr. Art Smejkal as interim superintendent; and organized a committee (Christopoulos/Harris/Walsh) to meet with a committee from District 10 to select a new superintendent.

The next meeting regarding State School reorganization will be held on March 10 at 7:30 p.m. at the Antioch Community High School. this meeting is open to the public. The sixteen member committee, which is chaired by Regional School Superintendent William Thompson has adopted rules of conduct for the meetings. Some of the rules are: written summaries or reports of testimony should be provided to the committee, through Mr. Thompson's office seven days prior to the meeting; written copies of statistical data which will be used in testimony will be provided to

Committee Favors Units

A hearing by the Lake County School District Reorganization Committee will be held in the cafeteria of Antioch Community High School on Mar. 10 at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of the hearing will be to take testimony from all interested parties concerning school district reorganization of the Antioch High School District.

Under the Illinois School District Reorganization Act, all of the school district reorganization committees in the state must submit reorganization plans to the state no later than June 6, 1986. Under the plans, no elementary school district would have an enrollment of less than 1000 pupils, no high school district would have an enrollment of less than 500 pupils, and no K-12 unit district would have an enrollment of less than 1500 pupils.

The Lake County committee is pushing for a plan that would combine all of the smaller elementary school districts in the Antioch High School District territory into one K-12 unit district with the high school.

The plan will be put before the voters some time in April of 1987. Under the Reorganization Act, reorganization plans must pass with a majority in every school district involved. Because of this clause Bill Thompson, chairman of the Lake County committee, is pessimistic about the passage of any reorganization plans in the Antioch area.

Thompson said that the act would have a chance if it could be passed by a straight majority of all the voters in the Antioch High School District, but there were some smaller elementary districts that could vote down the proposal.

"Change like this creates uncertainty in peoples minds," said Thompson.

If the reorganization proposals are voted down in April of 1987, they will be resubmitted to the voters in November of that year. Thompson said that the state will probably provide incentive for reorganization by promising more state aid to unit districts.

"The formula for state aid already favors unit districts," said Thompson. "When you start pinching them in the pocket book school districts will pay more attention to reorganization plans."

Thompson said that the committee has hired a consulting firm to begin gathering information on districts that have not consolidated. The committee hopes to use this information to support the formation of unit districts at the March hearing.

Thompson said the committee was in favor of unit districts because they would be better organized and provide all Antioch students with the same opportunities for education.

Anderson Questions Norm Geary's Honor

Dist. 4 Lake County Board Candidate Pat Anderson (Avon Twp.) received his fourth endorsement from precinct committeemen in Dist. 4 at a Feb. 3 meeting in Grant Twp.

Anderson and Charlotte Kiesgen (Grant Twp.) are now both being backed by precinct committeemen in all four of the townships involved (Antioch, Avon, Grant and Lake Villa) in the Dist. 4 March 18 Primary.

Anderson attributes his endorsements to the fact that he is a "true Republican."

"The reason why Char (Kiesgen) and I have been endorsed by committeemen from all four townships is because they know that we're Republicans. They don't know what party Norm (Geary) represents," he said.

"Geary has been consistently supporting the Democrats' position on the Lake County Board, but he claims he's a Republican," Anderson added.

Geary doesn't seem to be worried about Anderson's allegations. "I am a Republican. In fact, I've been a Republican longer than Pat has been a registered voter.

March 18th's Agenda: Babcox Vs. Bob Neal

by JOHN STEINKE

The Venita McConnell - Donna-Mae Litwiler contest for the Republican nomination for county clerk is the hottest thing in the March 18 primary.

The race is taking shape in ways not discernible to the public eye. The two contestants are saying little about each other publicly and they give the appearance, for the most part, that they are unaware that the other is a rival. But you can hear the grunts, thumps, and groans from behind the curtain.

There isn't any doubt in the minds of any informed people that Wauconda Village

Steinke On Politics

Clerk Venita McConnell has, at least, the best wishes, at most the quiet support of Lake County GOP Chairman Bob Neal's forces. Dist. 4 County Board Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler has the open endorsement of Sheriff Robert H. "Mickey" Babcox and the support of his political machine.

One wonders sometimes whether the politicians really believe they are as subtle as they sometimes seem to think. But a great game of pretense is being played in which GOP Chairman Neal and Sheriff Babcox act like the county clerk's primary has no relationship to the Republican leadership issue in Lake County. But the hidden agenda behind the McConnell - Litwiler primary contest is whether or not Neal or Babcox is the top honcho in county politics.

While McConnell is affiliated with Neal's faction of the party, she seems to have staked out an independent candidacy for county clerk. On the other hand, it appears that Litwiler is Sheriff Babcox's candidate. On the County Board, she is perceived as "Mickey's mouthpiece." Last week, a prominent Republican official confided to this columnist that Venita McConnell would be unelectable in the November election even if she captured the GOP nomination for county clerk. He claimed that Sheriff Babcox would extend only "token support" to McConnell's candidacy. But this GOP official asserted that Babcox would provide ample funds to finance Litwiler's general election campaign.

On March 18, Republican primary voters will determine the future direction of their party. Do they want the Lake County Republican party to replicate the Chicago Democratic machine's policy of closed politics? If you want machine politics where Sheriff Babcox lines up candidates like sacks of potatoes, vote for Litwiler. If you want to preserve the tradition of free and open primaries, vote for McConnell.

The choice is yours. At least for now. POSTSCRIPT: As a political columnist, I really respect public officials that I have criticized in print, who confront me directly on my commentaries. Last week, Dist. 4 County Board Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler telephoned me concerning my criticisms of her county clerk's candidacy. She made a spirited and an articulate defense of her political career. Unfortunately, deadline commitments prevented me from printing her observations. Therefore, next week's column will be devoted to my telephone conversation with Mrs. Litwiler.

Newell Indicted On Drug Charges

Former Lake County Board of Health President Arthur Newell of Ingleside has been indicted along with two other Fox Lake men and a former Antioch shoe store owner on charges of trafficking in marijuana.

Newell was sentenced last week to nine months in jail on charges of bribery and corruption along with former Fox Lake Mayor Richard Hamm.

According to the U.S. Department of Justice Strike Force on Organized Crime, Newell, along with Fox Lake Animal Warden Erik Erickson, and former Fox Lake Police Chief Robert Trinski Jr., have been indicted for smuggling large amounts of marijuana from Jamaica in 1981.

According to the indictment, Trinski collected $50,000 from Erickson and $40,000 from Lewis F. Simon, a former Antioch resident who once owned a shoe store there several years ago. Erickson then gave the money to Newell who traveled and used $20,000 of the money as an advance payment on a drug buy.

The group discussed there plans for the buy at the Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge a 1-94 and Wisconsin Rt. 50 west of Kenosha. Plans were also made at Dino's Den in Fox Lake.

Arraignment of Newell, Erickson, and Trinski has been scheduled for Feb. 3 in the U.S. District Court of Judge James Moran. Simon will be arraigned on Feb. 6.

Going For The Jugular

U.S. Sen. Alan Dixon, the "unbeatable man" of Illinois politics, may be in for a surprise in his bid for a second term—if a businessman is successful in winning the Republican nomination March 18.

George Ranney, a steel company executive and one of two GOP candidates, has established himself as a heavy hitter in the short time he has been on the campaign trail and he is going straight for Dixon's jugular, ripping the popular downstate Democrat who never has lost an election, where he is most vulnerable—chronic absenteeism and an inability to pass major legislation.

Ranney is going around the state telling voters that Dixon failed to attend a single one of the 23 Senate Agriculture full committee hearings in the two-year period of 1983 and 1984 and that Dixon missed 21 subcommittee hearings during the same period. Ranney characterized Dixon's attendance record as "abysmal." He was slightly more charitable in terming Dixon's legislative record "slim," referring to two bills he's passed in nearly six years.

Dixon is looked upon as so formidable that all the Republican "name" candidates shied away from taking him on. The result is that the unknown Ranney appears to be going for broke. Ranney has everything to gain and Dixon has everything to lose in the context of being cast as an overwhelming favorite. Of such political ingredients are interesting campaigns made.

Tickets, Not Lectures

Illinois police chiefs have called for strict enforcement of the state's new safety belt law. Their no-nonsense approach probably means that drivers will start getting tickets instead of lectures.

In calling for vigorous enforcement, members of the Illinois Assn. of Chiefs of Police at their annual meeting last month also urged all chiefs to adopt and enforce policies and rules in their departments requiring safety belt use by police personnel.

IACP members, who represent every major city in Illinois including Chicago, support the Illinois safety belt law because it is based on recognized scientific studies, proving that wearing safety belts saves lives and prevents serious injuries in vehicle crashes. And the law already has saved lives, emphasized Fairview Heights Police Chief Roger Richards, president of IACP.

But, Richards added, it has not saved enough lives because there are still too many drivers and too many front seat passengers who are not yet using safety belts. Yes, too many, but not for long.

Laying Unit Groundwork

Whether parents and taxpayers like it or not, the groundwork is being laid to mandate virtually 100 percent unit school districts in Illinois.

As required by the state, Regional Supt. William L. Thompson, through the Lake County School Dist. Reorganization Committee, has started a series of hearings running from February through May in non-unit communities designed to get public opinion on the plan to do away with separate grade and high school districts. The county has five unit districts and 11 dual systems.

The hearings and subsequent education programs to be conducted by the committee are designed to set the stage for referenda on unification in April, 1987.

Starting in Grayslake, the hearings will be held several weeks apart in succession in Highland Park, Zion, Antioch, Libertyville, Lake Forest, Warren (Gurnee), North Chicago, Grant (Fox Lake-Ingleside), Stevenson (Lincolnshire) and Mundelein.

Unification hasn't been easy in Lake County. Customarily, there is polarization and bitter controversy. Yet where the dual system has been replaced, tranquility ultimately settles in following transition's rough spots and the education process goes on.

Facts would appear to indicate that taxpayers are buying more schooling for their education tax dollars in unit districts. In Lake County, there is a 50 cent rate differential in favor of unit communities. This works out to $120 more per typical home in taxes paid per year in communities where the districts still are separate.

Unit proponents argue that unification makes for more efficiency, a more coordinated curriculum and better educated graduates. Again, that seems to work out. In

by BILL SCHROEDER

Shades of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn!

A stern-wheel river boat weighing more than 20 tons will be the newest and one of the most colorful attractions on the Chain O'Lakes this summer.

The "Island Queen" is the centerpiece of an investor group working together and separately to refurbish a venerable Fox Lake resort, develop a marina, turn King's Island into a destination point for the 70 foot long excursion boat, form a new yacht club and establish a new dining spot on Pistakee Lake.

The river boat is the brainchild of Jerry McBreen, owner of a Fox Lake sailboat business and owner of the resort property. The restaurant will be operated by Ernie Andres, of the well know Richmond restaurant family. Other members of the group are experienced and successful businessmen.

McBreen said the Island Queen will be put into service with a colorful coronation ceremony June 14, Flag Day, with festivities including a big parade. The "Queen" now is under construction at LaCrosse, Wis.

Andres reported that the restaurant will feature a 1890's motif.

The new restaurant, Andres on the Bay, is the latest endeavor of resort and recreation businesses at the site dating back to the earliest days of the century.

Barbara Ehmann Murray, now an Ingleside homemaker, remembers growing up at the spot when it was operated as Ehmann's Hillside Resort by her late parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ehmann.

"I was eight years old when we moved out from Chicago to go into the resort business because my dad loved hunting and fishing. It was a lot of work and a lot of fun," recalled Mrs. Murray. She and her husband, Bob, ran the business until 1974, ending 24 years of ownership and operation by the same family.

Since that time there has been a succession of owners, most of them following the familiar pattern of offering fun seekers a place to dock a boat, picnic, and fish with facilities for eating and drinking.

Aware that the resort is undergoing a drastic facelifting, Mrs. Murray said she and her husband have discussed with amusement the possibility of dining at the new place in quarters that once was their family living room — or bedroom.

"I'm glad the place isn't being abandoned as a resort. It'll be interesting to see how the new look turns out," Mrs. Murray remarked.

One thing about the Island Queen. She'll be confined to plying the waters of Pistakee Lake, Meyers Bay and the Fox River above the McHenry Dam. She won't be able to go under the Rte. 12 bridge at Fox Lake because of the superstructure and twin smoke stacks.

REMARKABLE—Grace Bejcek, left for dead in her home by a brutish drifter in a savage attack Aug. 9, 1984, has made a remarkable recovery. Now the Fox Lake resident wants to devote her life to helping other people who have suffered severe head injuries.

Grace is the volunteer focus of the Lake County Support Group located at St. Therese Hospital that has been established to assist persons who are working to straighten out lives disrupted by head injuries.

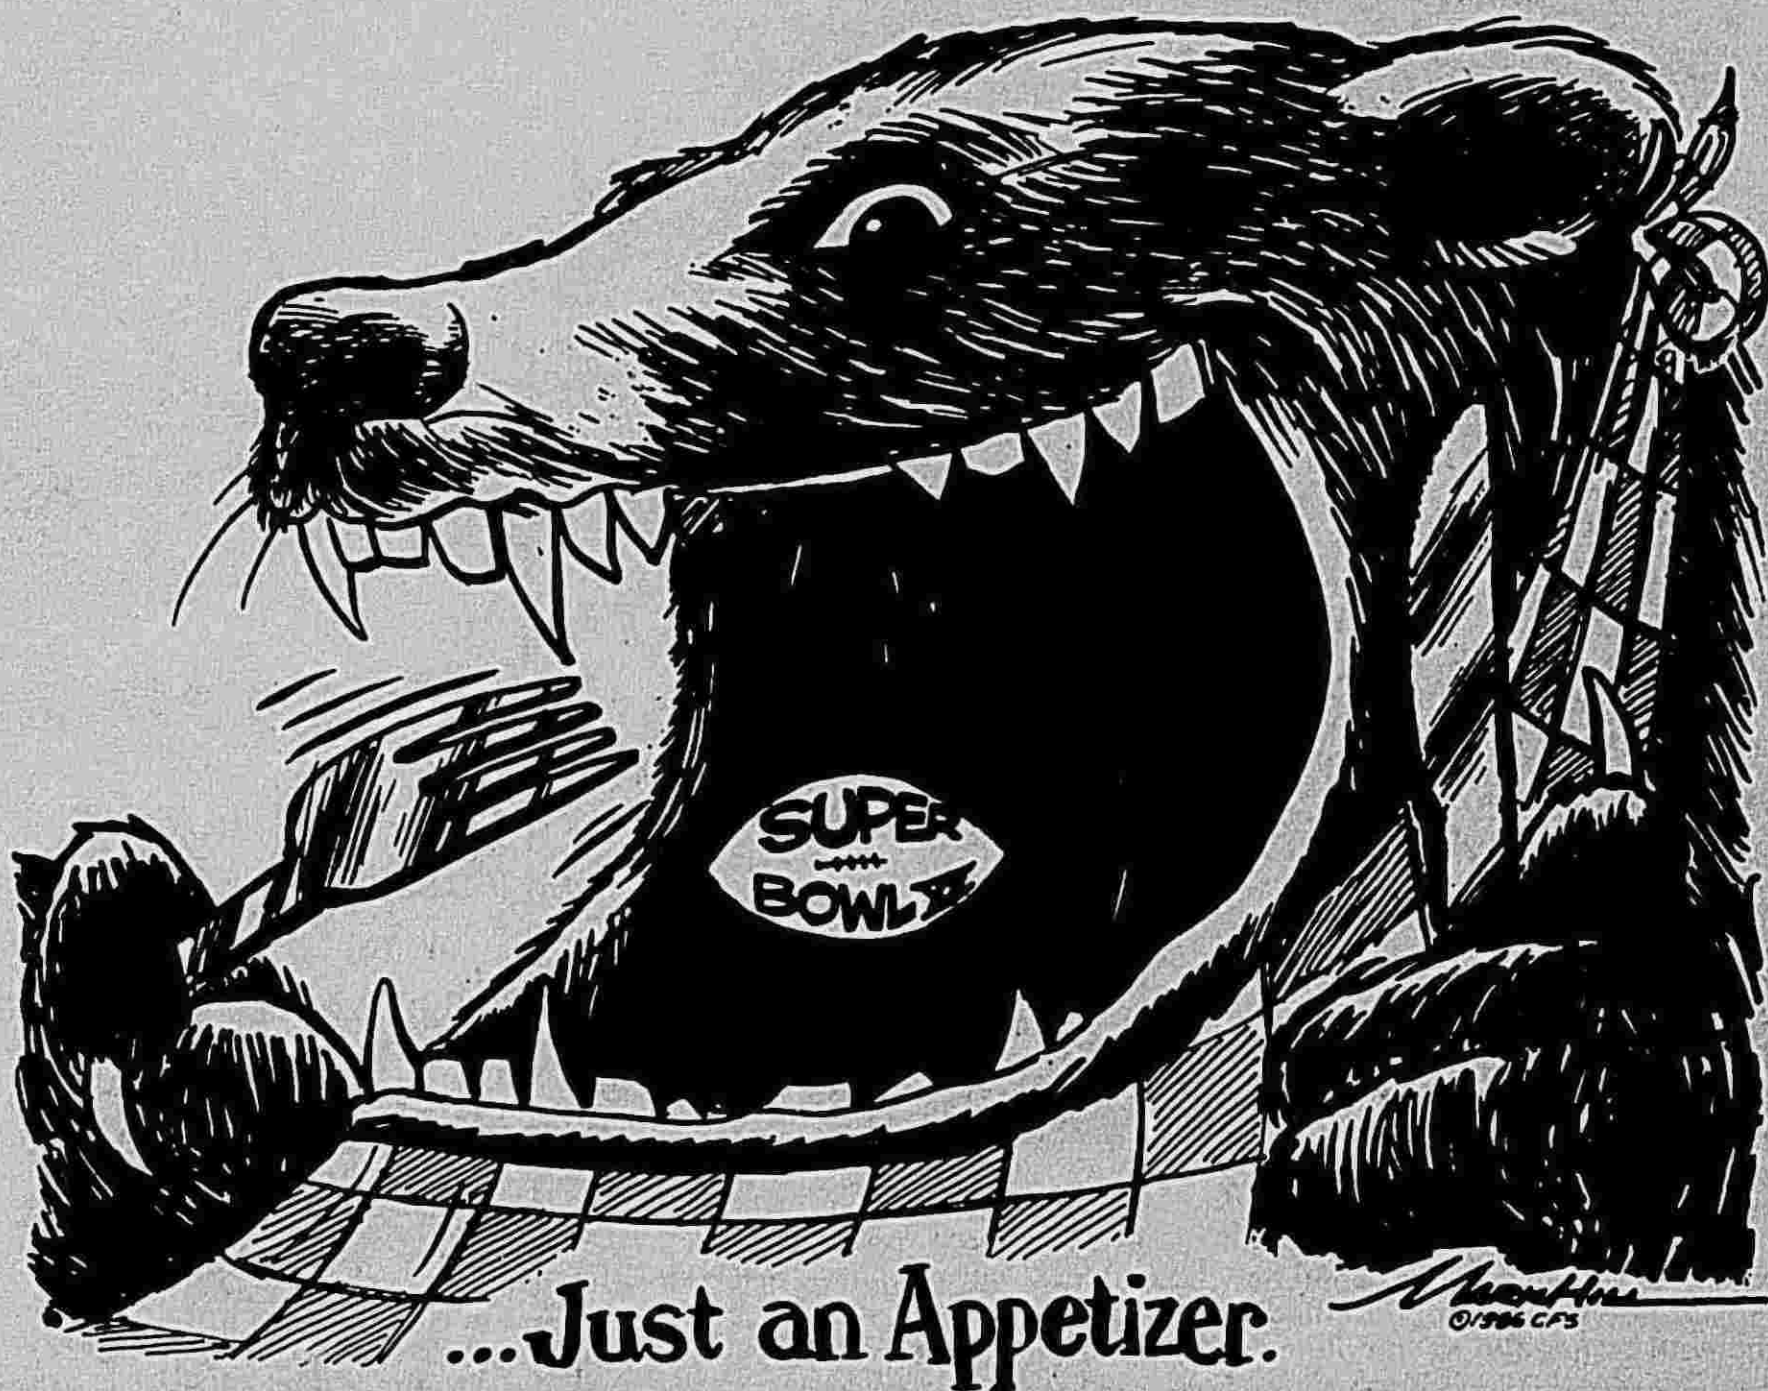

The brutal assault left Ms. Bejcek with a speech impediment, a problem she hopes regular therapy sessions will overcome with time.

In measured tones, Grace declared, "I feel we can help each other when we share our recovery experiences." She described the support groups as a "self help" agency. Ms. Bejcek can be contacted at (312) 587-3423 for more information.

Jesus Alonzo Reyes, 26, now is behind bars for injuries he inflicted upon Mrs. Bejcek, 59, with a sledgehammer. Reyes, who is from Minnesota, was passing through Fox Lake when he broke into the Bejcek home for reasons that were never substantiated.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—Bill and Lisa, our future daughter-in-law, have introduced wok cooking to the household with totally pleasant results. A couple of encounters offered convincing evidence "woking" is worth the work, at least from my perspective on the receiving end. When you cook with a wok, you start with fresh materials. Any young woman who works with a wok is testament to the fact that not all of today's future homemakers are addicted to the fast food way of life. With Bill and Lisa at the wok, and Jill and Karen keeping the oven hot with new bakery creations, mom and pop can sit back and enjoy home cooking—with relish.

...Just an Appetizer.

Big Brothers/Sisters To Bowl Feb. 16-23

The Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County is holding its fifth annual Bowl-For-Kids-Sake events Feb. 16-23, culminating with a Celebrity Day, featuring Sheriff Robert "Mickey" Babcox on Feb. 23.

League bowlers throughout the county, as well as those less experienced, can participate in the bowl-a-thon on those days at any Lake County bowling alley or at one of the lanes participating in the event by obtaining sponsors to donate pledges per pin.

Participating bowling alleys include Lakehurst Bowl, Waukegan; Mundelein Lanes; Bertrand Lanes; Waukegan; Fox Lake Lanes; and Antioch Lanes.

"Celebrity Day" will cap off Bowl-For-Kids-Sake at the Brunswick Lakehurst Bowl in Waukegan on Feb. 23. Anyone wishing to be a celebrity for the kids may register at the bowling alley that day from 12:30-1 p.m. Honorary Chairman Babcox will be on hand to roll the first ball.

The student council of Warren Twp. High School in Gurnee has challenged all Lake County high schools to exceed its bowling score goals. Warren's team of Gina Martinez, Ann Rudy, Heather Carlson, Rick Metcalf and Renee Lahey will be at the Celebrity Day to meet challengers.

The Waukegan Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, with bowlers Morlot Williams, William Pete, Leather Thompson, Michael Carter, Jessie Banks, Amos Jones and Richard Seals, has likewise vowed to "out-bowl" the alumni chapters of Alpha Phi Alpha and Omega Phi Psi fraternities.

Participants don't need to belong to a formal organization to participate in Celebrity Day. Any group of four or five friends can join together, find sponsors and bowl on Feb. 23.

Prizes will be awarded to the individuals who raise the most money. The bowler who secures the largest number of paid pledges will win a 19-inch color television. Other prizes include theatre/dinner tickets, a bicycle and gift certificates.

As a bonus incentive, all bowlers with paid pledges of $300 or more will receive a "Discovery Flight," a 15-minute private air tour, donated by Trans-Air Corp. in Waukegan.

"Little people need big people, and Bowl-For-Kids-Sake is a good way to help the two get together," said Saralynn Reedy, executive director, Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County.

For sponsor sheets, or for further information, call Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County at (312) 360-0770.

Great America Conducts Search

On Friday, Feb. 14, and Saturday, Feb. 15, Six Flags Show Productions will conduct its annual talent search for 20 singers and dancers who will star in the 1986 stage production of "AMERICA!," the patriotic, Broadway-style musical revue which premiered at the park last season.

For singers, a piano and accompanist will be available at the auditions. (Please be advised that the park will not provide a record player or cassette tape player.) Singers are responsible for bringing music in their key.

Dancers should wear proper dance attire and will be taught combination exercises by a Six Flags choreographer.

Wednesday, Feb. 12, at 5 p.m., Great America and Gene Patrick Productions will conduct auditions for dancers in the park's newest Theatre Royale production "Bugs Bunny's Goin' Hollywood," a hilarious and colorful comedy featuring the Oscar-winning 'wabbit and his Looney Tunes pals.

Auditionees for "Bugs Bunny's Goin' Hollywood" must be 16 or older and should come prepared to participate in several dance combination exercises. A prepared routine is not necessary.

During the weekend of March 8 and 9, Great America will also host instrumental auditions, by appointment only, for the park's popular 14-member marching band. To audition, musicians specializing in percussion, tuba, trombone, trumpet, and/or alto, tenor and bari saxophone should bring their own sheet music and also be prepared to site read. Interested musicians should call the park's show department at (312) 249-1776, ext. 462, for an appointment.

YES, YOU CAN!

You may have seen many new satellite earth stations, or "dishes", installed in our area recently and asked yourself, "Are those dishes legal?" or, "Can I have one of those?" Well, happily the answer to both questions is YES. In 1984, the U.S. Congress approved home earth stations designed for the reception of satellite broadcasts. Not only are dishes legal to use, they are affordable. You can enjoy the freedom and wide variety of satellite television today.

The Bottom-Line IRA

We Dare Other IRAs To Beat It!

A lot of IRAs offered today look mighty tempting. But when the smokescreen of bonuses and gimmicks has cleared and all the horns and whistles have stopped blowing, the only important thing is the bottom line... the amount your IRA will be worth at maturity. You will be surprised at how those gimmicks disguise a low yield. We've checked our competition on IRAs carefully. The "bottom line" is that most of them can't top the high yields of Skokie Federal IRAs...pure and simple.

At current rates, a deposit of $2,000 in our 3-Year IRA would yield a tax-deferred $2,610 at maturity. The same contribution to our 5-Year IRA would yield a tax-deferred $3,237. We think you should check the "bottom line" wherever you open your IRA. Give us a call or stop in for actual comparisons...or call our competition. You'll find you are further ahead with the Bottom-Line IRA from Skokie Federal.

Republicans Endorse Candidates

The Republican Party's Executive Committee has endorsed candidates for U.S. Senate, Lake County Board and North Shore Sanitary Dist. offices for the March 18 Primary election.

In making the announcement, Robert P. Neal said, "As chairman of the finest Republican organization in the country, I am pleased that so many good candidates have participated."

He went on to say, "The hours...days that our executive committee has spent on this endorsement process is only a small example of the dedication these people have shown to make sure that the very best qualified Republicans are elected."

The U.S. Senate candidate endorsed by an almost unanimous vote was George Ranney of Cook County. George Ranney is a Lake county native who left the county at the age of 20. George's mother and father are still residents of Lake County.

Neal was truly impressed with the straight forward, no-nonsense attitude Mr. Ranney showed. Neal said he felt that the way Mr. Ranney had virtually gone into the mines in Southern Illinois as the "troubleshooter" for the steel company he worked for at the time to identify the problems of the workers is very impressive. Subsequently, he was responsible for the reduction in costs over a three year period by almost 20 percent and at the same time increased employment opportunities.

The Lake County Republican Executive Committee is pleased to endorse George Ranney for U.S. Senator and they will encourage an all-out effort to get Mr. Ranney's message to the people of Lake County.

Neal went on to announce the executive committee's decision on endorsements for the Lake County Board and the North Shore Sanitary Dist.: County Board Dist. 1: Helen Amendola, Endorsed; James Mitchell, Jr., Endorsed; County Board Dist. 2: Matthew Miholic, Qualified; Frances Vetrone, Qualified; Alan "Jack" Diamond, Qualified; County Board Dist. 3: Randy Whitmore, Endorsed; B. F. (Bud) Bailey, Endorsed; County Board Dist. 4: Charlotte "Char" Kiesgen, Endorsed; Patrick Anderson, Endorsed; County Board Dist. 5: Robert W. Depke, Endorsed; Jerome J. Brunette, Endorsed; County Board Dist. 6: John P. Reinold, Qualified; Glenn E. Miller, Qualified; Patrick R. Wilson, Endorsed; North Shore Sanitary Dist. 2: Bernard E. Drew, Sr., Endorsed; North Shore Sanitary Dist. 3: Temo Lopez, Endorsed; North Shore Sanitary Dist. 5: Louise G. Greenebaum, Endorsed.

Neal pointed out that in order to get an endorsed rating required a 2/3 vote of the executive committee. In conclusion he added, "these endorsements are not meant to be a mandate for the Republican Precinct Committeemen;" however, he certainly hopes that the majority of precinct committeemen who had directed their township chairman's choice would work for the endorsed candidates.

Voter Registration To Close On Feb. 10

Voter registration for the March 18 Primary Election will close at almost all locations throughout Lake County on Feb. 10, according to Lake County Clerk Linda Hess.

"For those residents who do not register before this date," Hess said, "they may do so only at the County Clerk's office in Waukegan or any municipal or town clerk's office through Feb. 18. Any voter who has recently moved should notify our office immediately of their change of address so they will not be ineligible to vote in March," she explained.

Young people who will turn 18 years of age by March 18 may register to vote prior to the close of registration.

Board Accepts Award

The College of Lake County Board of Trustees has voted to approve the acceptance of state grants totaling $51,627.

The Illinois Community College Board and the Dept. of Commerce and Community Affairs awarded the college a grant in the amount of $29,963, effective Dec. 1, 1985 through June 30, 1986, to establish a Small Business Development Center.

The center offers counseling, consulting, and referral services to small retail and manufacturing businesses in Lake County and functions as a unit of the Center for Economic Development.

The board also approved a grant of $21,664 on behalf of Illinois community colleges to manage the Transformation of American Industry Project for the State of Illinois.

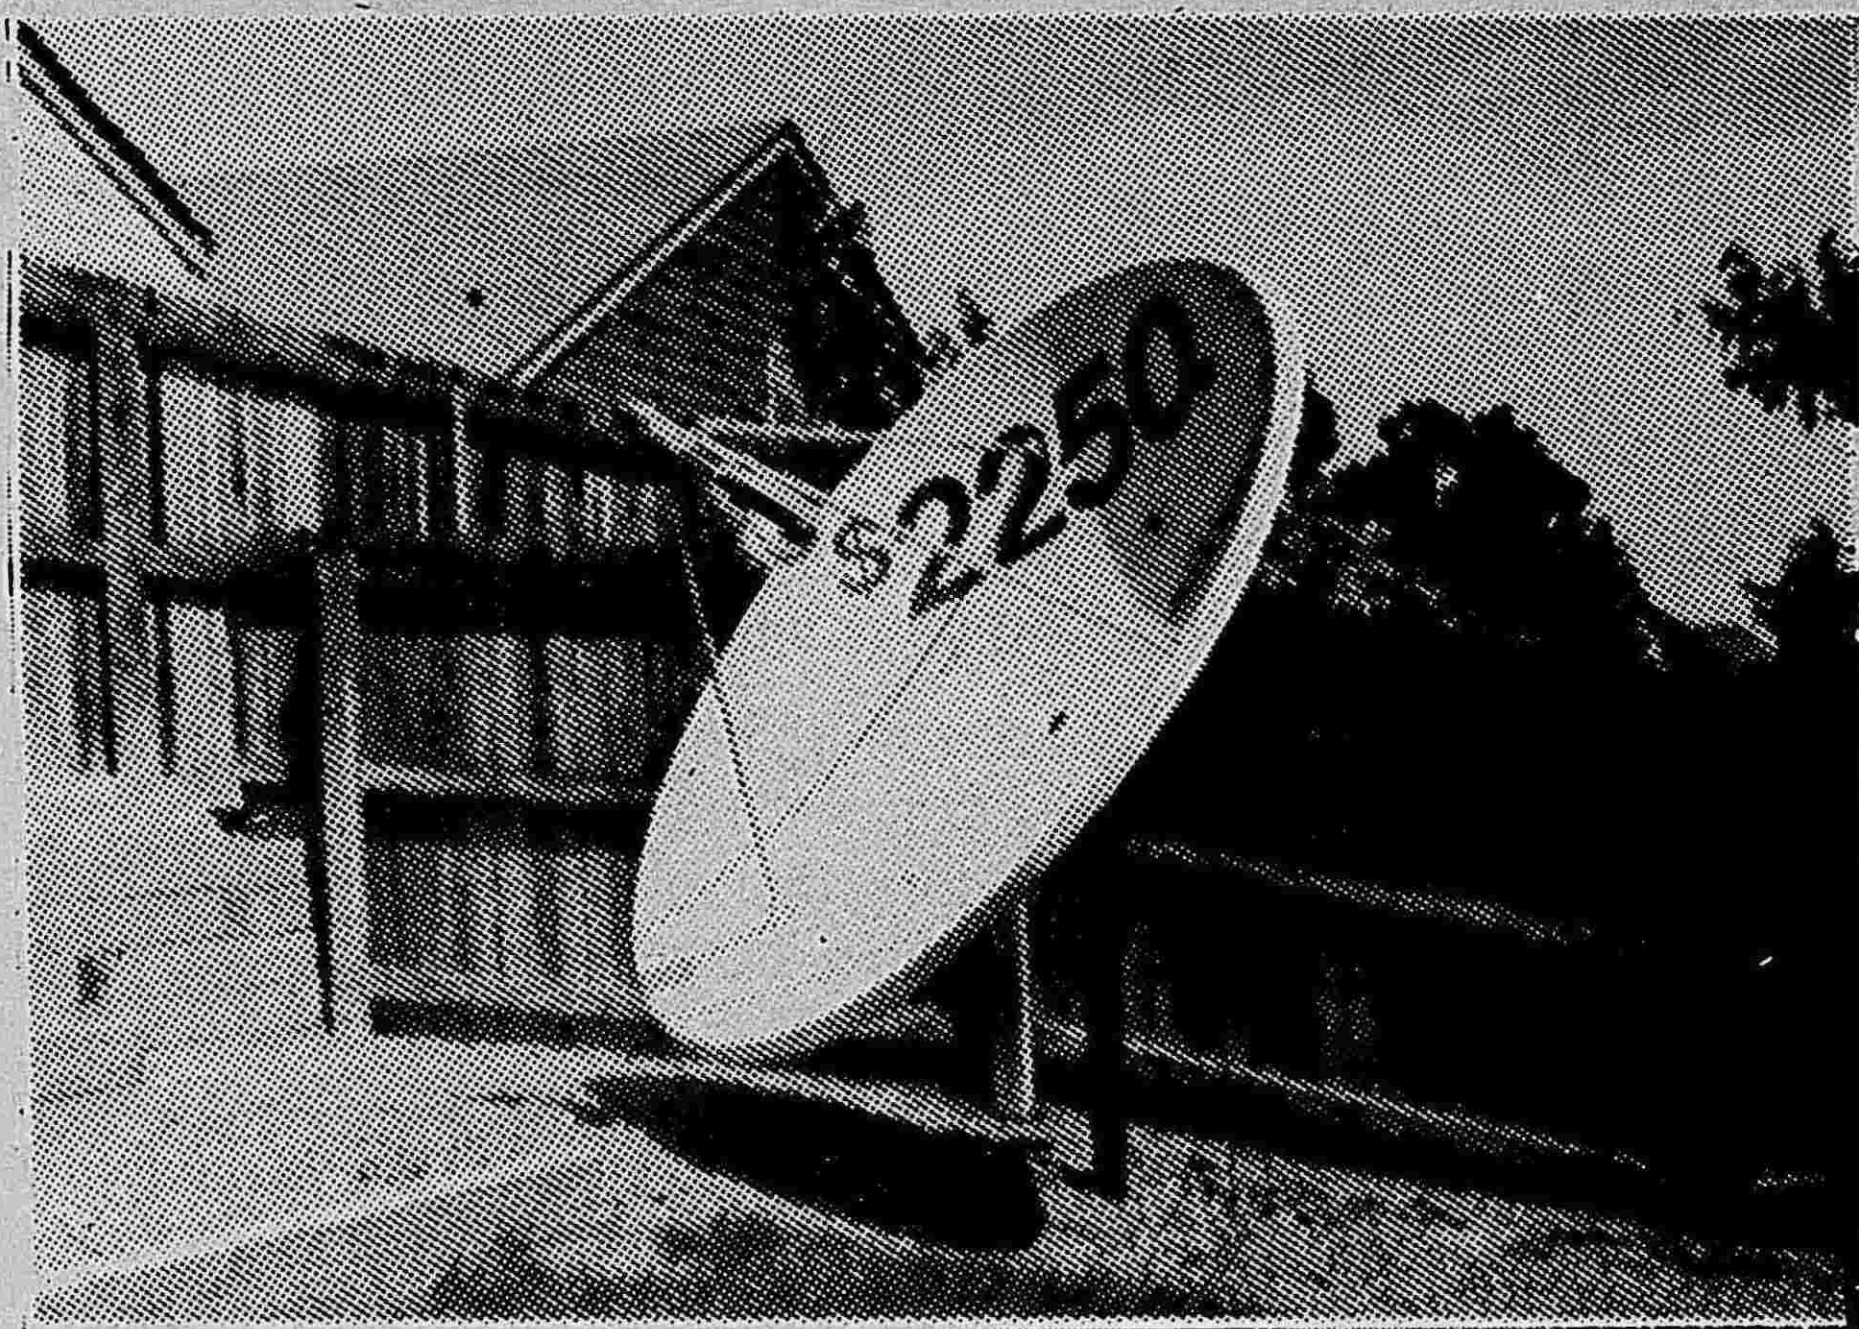

In other action, the board has approved renewal of the interstate cooperative educational agreement with Gateway Technical Institute. The retirement of Barbara Subject, a Grayslake resident and employee of the college since it opened in 1969, was approved effective May 1.

Russ Peterson, associate dean, Division of Communication Arts, Humanities and Fine Arts, presented a summary of division activities and plans.

Peterson said, "We are now at a point where next fall we will begin to offer a fully integrated humanities core curriculum. We will have developed a curriculum of individual courses so that they become much more interdisciplinary."

The next board meeting will be Feb. 18.

United Way Approves $26,000 Funding Request

United Way of Lake County announces its approval of a special funding request by the Lake County Council Against Sexual Assault (LA CASA) for $26,000.

The funding will allow for the addition of a program director, increasing the number of LA CASA staff to two. Needed office equipment will also be purchased.

To meet the increase in requests for services, the program director will facilitate self-help groups, currently only offered to adult rape survivors, for incest survivors and adolescents throughout Lake County, while providing greater support to many volunteers.

Gaylene Henry, executive director of LA CASA, explains that the results of the funding will be "...higher quality, expanded professionalized service for both sexual assault survivors and their loved ones."

Thompson's Support Big Step For Venita

by JOHN STEINKE
(POLITICAL COLUMNIST)

Wauconda Village Clerk Venita L. McConnell has received the endorsement of Lake Villa Twp. Supervisor Dorothy Thompson in her quest for the GOP nomination for Lake County Clerk in the March 18 primary.

Supervisor Thompson issued a strong statement supporting McConnell's nomination. Thompson contended: "Rarely, do I prepare a letter of endorsement for a candidate for public office. But I think that Venita L. McConnell's candidacy for Lake County Clerk merits the support of Republican primary voters. Therefore, I am issuing a public declaration endorsing her nomination."

Mrs. Thompson continued: "Venita is a 'no nonsense' type of candidate. She is determined to win the election, and after talking with her, you know that she will succeed in her endeavor. Her strong background in business management, her vast experience as Wauconda Village Clerk, and her well-recognized campaign efforts on behalf of Republican candidates makes Venita McConnell the quality aspirant for Lake County Clerk. Her election will restore competency to this office, and bring honor to the Republican Party."

Last April, Thompson was elected Lake Villa Twp. Supervisor when she defeated then incumbent Fred Popp. Thompson garnered 70 percent of the vote to only 30 percent for Popp. Prior to her election to this office, she served as Lake Villa Twp. Clerk for eight years. Currently, Dorothy Thompson is chairperson for the Lakes Senior Service Advisory Board.

McConnell is battling Dist. 4 County Board Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler of Ingleside for the Republican nomination for Lake County clerk in the spring primary. Dist. 4 includes Avon, Antioch, Grant and Lake Villa Twp. in western Lake County.

Litwiler's campaign is being sponsored by Lake County Sheriff Robert H. "Mickey" Babcox of Grayslake. Two years ago, Babcox was instrumental in helping to return Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson of Grayslake to office.

Lake Villa Twp. Supervisor Dorothy Thompson's endorsement of McConnell over Litwiler is a major coup for the Wauconda Village Clerk. McConnell has now established a significant political enclave in District, the home territory of Sheriff Babcox and her primary opponent. Whoever wins the GOP nomination will oppose Democratic County Clerk Linda Hess in the Nov. 6 general election.

Warhawks, Bison Could Bode Trouble For Antioch

The Antioch varsity cagers had sole possession of second place in the North Suburban Conference for one night after defeating the Lake Forest Scouts, 68-61, on Jan. 31. But a big loss to the Libertyville Wildcats on Feb. 1, 84-58, smashed the Sequoits hopes of catching first-place Warren.

The Sequoits are getting ready to face North Chicago on Feb. 7 in Antioch. Coach Don Zeman is banking on keeping his zero losses at home record in tact against the Warhawks who took Antioch by one point earlier in the season.

Antioch could have a tough time containing all-stater J.

C. Coleman, 6-8, and Zeman hopes his boys won't run into the same problem that they did against Libertyville and will be able to get the ball to Dave Grindley and Don Gunther.

Then on Saturday, Feb. 8, the Sequoits will travel to Fenton. Antioch narrowly edged Fenton a month ago in exciting overtime play.

"The Bisons are small and aggressive and they have a press like Libertyville, I hope we'll be able to handle it this time," said Zeman.

Grindley had an outstanding game against Lake Forest, marking-up 25 points and grabbing 14 rebounds with Antioch leading all the way.

"We weren't ready to play Saturday night," was Zeman's comment on the crushing loss the Sequoits suffered at the hands of the Wildcats, allowing Libertyville's hard press to bring about 30 turnovers.

Gunther had the hot hands for Antioch in this one with 22 and six rebounds, followed by Grindley with 16 and 8 rebounds.

"The story might have been different if the offense could have gotten the ball to Gunther and Grindley more often," said Zeman.

Antioch is 8-5 in conference play and 11-9 overall.

Rams Start 2nd Season Off With a 65-48 Bang

by DANG O'SHEA

The Grayslake Rams started off the second half of the Northwest Suburban Conference basketball season with a bang, routing Wauconda 65-48 Jan. 31.

The Rams were scheduled to host Lake Zurich on Feb 5 and travel to Woodstock Friday, Feb. 7 to play Marian Central.

The victory at Wauconda gave Grayslake High a 4-4 conference record and an 8-9 record overall. Rams coach Greg Groth was pleased with the team effort. "Everybody scored, which is great. No one stood out. We were more aggressive and we really played like champs."

Although Tom Castino missed most of the second half because he was still weak from illness, the senior guard still managed to lead the Rams in scoring with 13 points. John Lui followed with 12 points, his season high, including six of seven from the free throw line. "With John, I think it was just a matter of getting confidence back," commented Groth.

Andrew Flood also had a strong game with a season-high 10 points. "I think he'll be a real leader for us next year," said Groth of the junior forward. Senior Jeff West had six rebounds for the Rams. Ray Magiera and Flood followed with five each. Flood also had three blocked shots in the first quarter.

Castino leads the Rams in scoring this year with 226 points, an average of 14.1 points per game. West follows with 99 points, 5.8 per game. Kelly Bye, who starts at guard with Castino, has 93 points for a 5.5 average. Daryl Mackenthun has 84 points, a 5.6 game average in the 15 games he has played in and Bill Sangbusch has an average of 4.4 a game for 74 points.

Grayslake beat Marian Central 70-66 earlier.

'Dogs Whip 'Canes

The Grant High School Bulldogs overpowered the Marion Central Hurricanes 68-60 on Jan. 31, at Grant on Jan. 31.

The leading scorers for the Bulldogs were Ron Richford with 27 points, and Mike Kazlauskis and Tom Barr, each with 10 points. The Bulldogs were also helped by 6 assists from Kazlauskis and 17 rebounds from Richford.

The game was an exciting contest with the Bulldogs trailing 31-30 at halftime. Coach Tom Maple credited the win to good shooting by the players. The Bulldogs hit 15 of 21 shots from the field and made 22 of the 27 freethrows attempted.

"We were very selective about our shooting and that led to our high percentages," said Maple. The Bulldogs also forced the Hurricanes to cough up the ball 23 times during the game.

The game puts the Bulldogs one game behind Round Lake, Marengo, and Lake Zurich for the Northwest Suburban Conference Championship. The Bulldogs will play all three teams at home before the season ends. They were scheduled to play Round Lake on Feb. 4 and they will play Marengo on Feb. 7.

Corsairs Eye 1st Division

Carmel's Corsairs play their final away game of the season at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 7, with a game at St. Patrick of Chicago and a chance to tighten their hold on a first division finish in the East Suburban Catholic League.

The Corsairs, now 11-10 on the season and 6-5 in conference, are playing their best basketball of the year and will be seeking their third consecutive win against the Shamrocks who they whipped earlier in the season.

Coach Frank Belmont was more than satisfied with the way the hustling Corsairs disposed of two ESC foes last weekend.

They ripped Notre Dame 59-39 in a game at Niles and followed up with a 70-49 drubbing of Holy Cross at Mundelein.

Senior Forward Scott Peterson of Lake Zurich had his most productive game of the season, notching 10 points. Rod Whittier led Carmel with 19 followed by Rodney Lambright's 11.

The taller Holy Cross Crusaders made it a contest for only part of the first half. The score was tied 14-14 at the quarter and Mike Curley's two pointer at the buzzer gave Carmel a 31-22 halftime lead.

Carmel solved the Crusader press in the fourth quarter when Belmont got all his reserves into action. The Corsairs cashed 22 of 29 freethrow attempts.

Whittier was high again with 14 and Junior Center Rob Graham had 12 points. Pat Hughes, junior forward for Holy Cross, had 12.

Carmel's sophs pushed their record to 17-4 for the season with a split, dropping a 44-43 game at Niles on a disputed tip-in after time ran out and downing the Holy Cross underclassmen 52-39.

Panthers Scalp Indians, To Face Lake Zurich

The Round Lake Panthers will try to break a two-way tie for second place this weekend when the Lake Zurich Bears come to town Friday, Feb. 7.

The Panthers, at press time, are tied for second place in the Northwest Suburban Conference with Lake Zurich, both one-half game behind league-leading Marengo.

The Panthers were scheduled to travel to Grant Feb. 4 for a conference battle in their attempt to hold off the surging Bulldogs, who are right behind the Panthers and the Bulldogs with a 5-3 mark in the conference.

Round Lake is coming off an emotional 69-67 win over Marengo Jan. 31 to pull within a half game of the Indians.

Senior Frank Ptak led the Panthers with a season-high 35 points, but the winning bucket came from another senior, Doug Sparks.

Sparks took an inbound pass from Ptak with four seconds left, dribbled up the length of the floor and popped the winning 15-footer at the buzzer.

The win raised the Panthers' overall record to 17-3 and 7-2 in the conference.

Sparks had a total of eight points for the game, while senior Greg Kreitner was the only other Panther in double figures with 12.

The Marengo game was a see-saw affair. The Indians led 15-14 after one period of play, but the Panthers came back in the second quarter to outscore Marengo 20-14 and take a 34-29 lead at the half.

Round Lake raised its lead by one point (46-40) going into the fourth quarter, but the Indians came back to make a game out of it.

Marengo scored two buckets in the last 10 seconds of the game to tie it up, but Sparks' jumper at the buzzer ruined the comeback.

Mustangs Aim For Top Defense Against Warren

Mundelein's varsity basketball team will try to hold onto its winning streak when they face the top-ranking Warren Blue Devils on Friday, Feb. 7, and the Lake Forest Scouts a day later.

Both teams will provide tough competition for the Mustangs who are now 8-5 in the North Suburban Conference. They are currently tied for second with Antioch and Lake Forest. Warren is in first place with a 12-1 record.

"Just the chance to play Warren should get the team up," said Mundelein head coach Dennis Kessel.

A strong defense has led the Mustangs through two winning games last week against Stevenson and Niles North. Mundelein beat Stevenson 63-47 on Jan. 31 with what Kessel called "exceptional defensive action."

Throughout the first half Mundelein maintained almost a 20-point lead with 35-16 at the half. The Mustang's Jay Retzinger scored an overall 23 points for the team. Andy Bond earned an additional 17 points and had seven rebounds during the game.

"Andy played his best game all season," Kessel said. "He did an outstanding job."

Eleven points from the Mustang's Jeff Geary helped to widen the gap.

The Mustang's strong defensive plays also led the team to a two point victory over Niles North a day later. Despite an attempted comeback during the final moments of the game, the Vikings, currently 7-6 in the North Suburban Conference, lost 77-75 against the Mustangs.

"Again, the team played with a lot of intensity and determination," Kessel said. "Retzinger played one of his most consistent games in scoring."

Retzinger earned a total of 34 points during the game, followed by Jim Tipperreiter with 15 points. The Mustang's Joe Weiner played a strong defense with nine rebounds.

"Weiner played with intensity. It was a good weekend for him," Kessel said. "Geary also played an excellent floor game."

A tough opponent, Niles North has lost only four games this season by three or less points each time, Kessel said.

Wauconda Looking For Win After Losing To Grayslake

The Wauconda varsity basketball team will take on Johnsburg in an away game on Friday, Feb. 7.

The Bulldogs, who are currently 0-8 in the Northwest Suburban Conference, played Marengo away on Feb. 4 and lost 65-48 against Grayslake at home on Jan. 31. The Rams, are now at 3-4 in the NWSC and 7-10 overall.

Leading scorer for the Bulldogs was Nibbio with 22 points. Also scoring were Babiak, six points, Van Zeyl, seven points, and Schaller, five points.

The Rams lead by seven points during the first quarter with 15-6 and widened the gap by 12 points at the half with 36-24. At the end of the third quarter, Wauconda was trailing by 16 points with 50-34.

Bears Maul 'Hawks

The Johnsburg Skyhawks lost to the Lake Zurich Bears 46-59 on Jan. 31. The leading scorers for the game were Steve Hall for the Bears with 19 points and Mike Toussaint for the Skyhawks with 17 points.

The telling statistics of the game are the freethrow percentages. The Skyhawks hit only 6 of 16 freethrows while the Bears hit 11 of 19, about 60 percent.

"They shot much better than we did from the line and the field and that made the difference," said Johnsburg Athletic Director, Bill Hurckes.

The Skyhawks are scheduled to battle the Marion Central Hurricanes on Feb. 4 and the Wauconda Bulldogs on Feb. 7.

Warren Aims For NSC Crown

by STEVE PETERSON

Warren boys basketball coach Darrel Bader says he is not thinking "magic numbers" yet.

But if Warren's present trend continues, the Blue Devils might just secure a North Suburban Conference basketball championship this weekend.

"I figured it out and the worst we can do is finish two games back," Bader said after Warren crushed Fenton 49-31 Feb. 1.

One night earlier, the Blue Devils edged defending NSC champ Niles North 69-65.

The latest victories run the Warren winning streak to eight, a 16-4 overall record, 12-1 in the NSC. That's four games better than Lake Forest, Mundelein and Antioch, tied for second at 8-5 with five games remaining.

But if the Blue Devils are to win the NSC crown, they will have to do so on the road. Starting with the Feb. 7 game at Mundelein, Warren faces four road games out of five left. Warren travels to Zion Benton Feb. 8.

Against Fenton, the Blue Devils' defense had a chance to hold the visiting Bison to under 30 points. But Fenton ruined those hopes, scoring with eight second left in the game.

"We played pretty good defense tonight but obviously they are not a very good offensive team. We had only one bad stretch in the second quarter," Bader said.

Brian Jarrell led the way in this low-scoring affair with 15 points. Ben Kibbe came off the bench to tally 12, all in the second half.

The Blue Devils, coming off the close call against Niles North, struggled early. They led 10-6 after one quarter, 18-11 at halftime.

Warren then blew the game open in the third quarter.

Edison Generates New Record

Commonwealth Edison generated a record output of about 69.7 million megawatt-hours of electricity for 1985, increasing its production by 2.1 percent over 1984's total output of 68.3 million mwh. The record was set despite Chicago's tenth coolest summer ever.

The month of December also set records for Edison. The company established a record winter demand for power on two consecutive days, reaching all-time peak usage of 11,713 megawatts on Dec. 18. December '85 also saw record output of about 6.5 million megawatt-hours, bettering the old December record of 6.3 million mwh set in 1983. Cold weather, an upturn in business activity, and increased use of electric heating all contributed to the rise.

The majority of 1985's power came from nuclear fuel—58.9 percent of total generation—an all-time high. By using uranium fuel, Edison saved customers almost $1 billion over the cost of the next cheapest alternative, low sulfur coal.

To meet increasing demands for electricity, Edison is completing work on three nuclear generating units—Byron 2 and Braidwood 1 and 2—which will join the company's nine operating nuclear units in providing the lowest cost type of power production widely available in northern Illinois.

McHenry Facts Back Drive-In Popularity

Experience of McHenry State Bank underscores the fact that people like to bank from the comfort and convenience of their car.

McHenry State normally processes more than 30,000 transactions per week, according to Edwin J. Becker, vice president and cashier.

Of that volume, Becker reported to stockholders at the annual meeting that 40 percent of the transactions are handled at three drive-in facilities.

Increase in drive-in transactions was among a number of reports showing how McHenry State business activity surpassed $200 million in total assets last year.

President Thomas F. Bolger pointed out that McHenry State is the largest independent community bank in the area.

Ormel J. Prust, executive vice president, emphasized the liquid position of McHenry State, stating that 60 percent of loans are in real estate mortgages. Of $70 million carried in real estate loans, 89 percent are due in five years or less.

Among new services added during 1985 was discount brokerage service.

Three Vacancies On St. Peters Board

On Apr. 30, three members of the school board (Gail Moser, Tim Wells and Dennis Sheehan) will have completed their terms. St. Peter Parish consequently will vote for their replacements. To provide for a smooth transition in selecting their replacements, the school board has developed and adopted the following procedures for nominating, qualifying, and electing members of the parish school board. Terms are for a period of three years. Member may serve a maximum of two elected terms.

The election committee will be appointed annually by the school board chairman. They will include ex-officio members of the board and board members. The election will be held on Apr. 27.

Voting will take place after each Mass (including the 5:30 p.m. Mass on Apr. 26). All adult parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children are eligible to vote. Parish rolls will be used to determine voter eligibility. Election committee will be responsible to appoint election judges.

A simple majority will be sufficient to elect a member. In the event of a tie, a runoff election will be held on the following Sunday. Results of any runoff election will be announced on the Sunday after the runoff.

Election results will be published and announced on Sunday, May 4. Elected members will be seated at the first regularly scheduled meeting after the election, i.e., in May. Ballots will be made available in Fr.

Frawley Hall after each Mass.

Prospective member must qualify according to the following school board requirements: member must reside in the community for at least six months; be a parish member or parent of St. Peter school child; must be a minimum of 18 years old. No person employed by the school may serve on the board.

Candidates for board membership must submit their Application-Petition signed by at least ten parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children to the principal, no later than 3 p.m. March 11. Application-Petition forms will be available at the school office beginning February 1, 1986. Names will appear on the ballot in the order petitions are filed.

The election committee will be responsible for certification of all applicants, accept all Application-Petitions and determine eligibility and acceptance of candidates to the school board.

Announcement of qualifying candidates will be made at the regular school board meeting of March 13. In the event a candidate does not qualify, he/she will be advised of the decision as well as the reason for his/her failure to obtain certification prior to March 13.

Any candidate will have the opportunity to question the election committee should he/she fail to obtain certification and present his/her case in favor of certification prior to March 13.

The election committee will be dissolved after completion of elections.

the committee in advance of the meeting; the committee reserves the right to restrict duplicate testimony; testimony will be taken in the order in which presenters sign in on the hearing registration forms; questions of the committee or individual committee members will not be permitted, nor will questions to other members of the audience. If you have any questions regarding the school district consolidations, it would behoove you to write your questions out and submit them prior to this meeting. There are 11 meetings scheduled at various high schools in the Lake County area. One other item to note, is oral presentations at the meetings will be limited to five minutes. The Antioch representative on this sixteen member committee is Mr. Bill Brooks. Grass Lake School is still looking for a substitute bus driver. If you are interested in the job, you must be willing to attend an eight hour bus driving class and obtain a class C license. Give the school a call at 395-1550 if you are interested. I really give our bus drivers a lot of credit. It takes a strong, but kind individual with nerves of steel to drive a bus. Some of us have a hard time, with just our own kids in the back seat of our cars.

Grass Lake School is offering "old" Grass Lake Cheerleading uniforms for sale at a price of $10 per set (skirt and sweater). They will be sold on a first-come/first-served basis. All profits from this will help supplement the uniform fund. Give Miss Glessner a call if you are interested.

The Junior High Ski Trip is planned for Feb. 7 from 4:30-10 p.m. at Americana Lake Geneva Resort, in Lake

Geneva, Wisconsin. Students may bring their ski equipment on the morning bus. Only the Grass Lake Junior High may travel on the bus to Americana, parents, brothers, and sisters who plan to ski may participate in the Grass Lake group rate, but they must have their own transportation to Americana. Parents should make arrangements to pick up their child at the school parking lot between 10:30 and 10:45 p.m. The students will not be allowed back in the school building upon return to the school. So don't wait for a phone call!

Be sure that your kids are dressed for the weather conditions, as they are expected to go outdoors for morning recess during inclement weather, unless a doctor's excuse indicates otherwise.

Easter Plans Begin

Plans for Antioch's Annual Easter Parade got underway on Feb. 3, as all those involved got together to plan the festivities and show off the posters that will announce the event. From left are: Larry Hanson, President of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, The Easter Bunny, Glenda Tomaschik, Recreation and Park Director For Antioch and Chairwoman for this year's parade, and Stan Luta, Antioch Postmaster and Chairman for this year's parade.

Jennings Joins Society

Theodore Jennings, a freshman at Culver-Stockton College, has been elected to serve as treasurer of C-S Fellows for the 1986-87 school year.

C-S Fellows is a local honor society committed to promoting scholarship, leadership and service to the campus and community. Members are involved in the tutoring program, serve as hosts and hostesses for campus events, and help in the admission effort.

Jennings, son of A. Theodore and Jo Jennings of Antioch, is majoring in biology at the college. He is a 1985 graduate of Antioch Community High School where he was involved in the biology club, drama, cross country, and was a National Merit Scholarship Finalist and an Illinois State Scholar.

Antioch Aids Handicapped

The Antioch Mental Health Association met at the Library on Jan. 13.

It was reported that $12,000 had been donated to Grove School in Lake Forest, Riverside Foundation in Lincolnshire and Lambs Farm in Libertyville. These are all facilities that aid mentally handicapped children and young adults in giving meaning to their lives.

Dorothy Teister, Chairman of the 1986 Cotillion announced it would be held May 17, at Harbor Ridge Country Club in Antioch. She said that Antioch's own Lloyd Pedersen will be a featured performer on that night. As always cocktails and dinner will be followed by dancing. This year, music will be furnished by the musical group "Arcade".

Illinois Bell Gets First 'Competitive' Offering

An integrated voice and data service has been unveiled as Illinois Bell's first "competitive" service under the new state telecommunications act.

Called Integrated Information Network, or IIN, the service will let businesses work with Illinois Bell to tailor their communications systems to meet their individual voice and data needs. Previously, customers had to order separate services for voice and high-speed data transmissions.

The recently-rewritten telecommunications act, effective with the new year, allows Illinois Bell to declare a service competitive when other companies are offering essentially the same service.

As a competitive service under the new act, IIN becomes effective immediately once a tariff is filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission. In the past, tariff filings for services which might now be declared competitive could have taken as long as 11 months to become effective.

With IIN, customers will be able to send data without having to purchase special switching equipment. Rather, they'll use existing phone lines to send voice and data communications through Illinois Bell's digital switching offices.

The digital offices let businesses talk from computer to computer at speeds of up to 56 kilobits per second. At that speed, the entire Webster's dictionary can be transmitted in under five minutes. The company has begun upgrading its offices by installing the digital switches and expects to have about one-fourth of all customer lines equipped to handle digital communications within two years.

Also, an IIN feature called "Hot Spares" will let businesses reserve a given number of lines so they can respond to their ever-changing telecommunications needs in an immediate manner. When customers want to activate the lines, they can make the changes themselves without having to go through the service order process and pay the accompanying charges.

Businesses interested in finding out more about IIN can call Illinois Bell at (312) 236-8739.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) If something seems too way out to fit your needs, look for a quick way out instead. An honest decision made now saves time and trouble for all.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Turn your Bull's eye towards spring. Get into shape for the new season. Switch to a healthier, lighter diet. Perk up your wardrobe. Consider making a bolder career move.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) An Aries has an idea that can grow into your kind of passion flower. Expect to spend lots of time cultivating the relationship before it blossoms into a full-blown romance.

Cancer (June 21-July 22) Past romantic problems may cause you to mistrust Cupid's aim. Have more faith in your ability to attract a new admirer. P.S. The Cherub won't miss his target this time.

Leo (Jul. 23-Aug. 22) The Lion's heart is in for an occasionally rocky ride on the romance roller coaster. Despite an occasional skipped beat, expect love to settle into your cozy den.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Single Virgoans with matrimonial inclinations could soon meet the mates they've been waiting for. Relationships need time. No rushing, pushing, commanding or demanding, okay?

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Expand the scope of your most important relationships. As the limits open up, bonds grow stronger between you and your loved ones. Exciting developments are on the horizon.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Incite much-needed excitement in your life. You soon find that when you look forward to something, you no longer feel left behind. A new special friend comes along.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Your attempt to reason out the cause of a difficult situation could be temporarily impeded by the efforts of a difficult person. Change for the better follows soon after.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Those less-than-best days you've been experiencing may be due to diet, exercise and work habits that need changing. A doctor gives you needed advice.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Coming up: a time of moral turmoil. Even friends may make shocking demands. But your instinct for doing the right thing, though not always easy to do, makes you a winner.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Showers of affection follow a drought. Expect your love boat to sail on a high tide of expectations. Other areas also show marked improvements all around.

Conservation Dist. To Hold Tree Sale

The Lake County Soil and Water Conservation Dist. will offer tree and tree seedlings to county residents this year.

According to Dist. Chairman John McNeill, "the district is looking forward to a very successful tree sale. As in the past, species chosen are mostly native and those that are readily adaptable for wind-breaks and wildlife refuge use."

McNeill added, "not only are residents promoting soil erosion control, but proceeds are utilized by the district to support other conservation programs."

Trees of all shapes and sizes can be ordered from the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation Dist. from now until March 28. Pick-up of seedlings and trees will be in mid-April. This represents the fifth district tree sale and is the district's main fund raising event for the year.

Last year's sale included bundles of 18" fir seedlings as well as 10-foot bare rooted hardwood trees. Similar seedlings, shrubs and tree seedlings will again be offered.

Order forms can be requested by calling (312) 223-1056. All monies made from the sale support district programs.

Gavin To Start Tot Program

Gavin School Dist. 37 announces that it will be starting a pre-school program in February for district three, four and five year olds. The program will be for those who are in need of early school training and experiences in the areas of listening, speech and language, motor development, visual training and social skills. Beginning immediately the district will be screening pre-school children who may benefit from the program.

The school district needs help in locating these children. Anyone having concerns about the developmental skills of their three, four or five year olds, can call Gavin Central School (312) 587-7601 now to have the child screened for the program.

Screening will only be offered Feb. 6 and 7.

Share this information with your neighbors who have pre-schoolers. The program is for those families residing within the Gavin School Dist.

Screenings will be held at the Ingleside Methodist Church. Vision and hearing screenings will be available.

Adler Plans Bit O'Irish

at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.

O'Brien and Sproule, both natives of Ireland, have both studied their musical history and kept it alive by performing extensively.
